

KICKSTARTER X KAPITAAL X STRANDED FM

PRESENT: LE GUESS WHO? 2019

THE OFFICIAL HANGOUT

Kickstarter—the leading platform for bringing creative projects to life—and Utrecht's beloved independent print workshop Kapitaal are teaming up to explore the trials and tribulations of creative pursuits, zooming in on the sweet spot where different forms of creativity overlap:

What universal skills apply to turning a visual idea into sound?
How does music inform prose, poetry, and design?
And how do I get that damn machine to print my zine?

JULIAN BRIMMERS

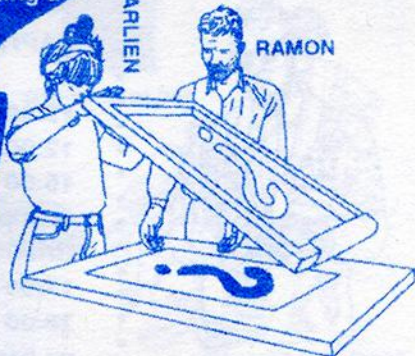

Through live interviews, listening sessions, and art exhibitions hosted by Christoph Nagel & Julian Brimmers of Kickstarter and Carlien Peijzel & Ramon Goedvree of Kapitaal, this will be your perfect weekend hangout.

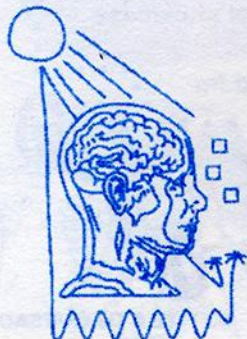

Besides all of this there are a lot of other fun stuff going on. Expect local goodness including a Kapitaal Printshop (bring your credit card), DIY screenprinting, Punk Pizza, nice drinks, live tattoo shop by Yung Johan, barber 'Kapper' Lars and DJ-sets hosted by the unconventional in-house, Utrecht-based radio station Stranded FM.

STRANDED.FM

Having become somewhat of a mainstay in Utrecht, Stranded FM celebrate and share music from all over the globe, becoming the city's bastion for discovering fresh sounds. During their four-year run, this Dutch underground radio station is built on a sense of community, a fertile DIY-mindset, plus a wholehearted love for cutting-edge music. With their studio situated in official festival hangout Kapitaal, Stranded FM will be on air for four days of Le Guess Who? festival radio specials

Steadily keeping their fingers on the pulse of their hometown Lisbon, the Principe crew have been at the forefront of Portugal's underground music scene for some time now. While the sounds of Principe cohorts like Nidia, Marfox, Niggafox, Firmeza, Niagara and many more explore the fringes of kuduro, techno, and all types of low-end heavy, unorthodox rhythms, the label's striking visual language tackles themes of identity and violence in almost playful ways.

During their 3 days residence at Kapitaal, Nelson Gomes and Márcio Matos, the heads behind Principe's striking visuals, turn Kapitaal into one dynamic exhibition space that changes over as we go along.

NOSEDRIP INTERVIEW AND DJ SET

Stroom co-founder/DJ Nosedrip talks about the importance of visual storytelling for his label and plays a DJ set. Exclusive prints designed by Stroom art director Nana Esi available at Kapitaal.

MOOR MOTHER: ALBUM LISTENING SESSION + PERFORMANCE

On Friday, Nov 8th, the release day of her long-awaited new album "Analog Fluids of Sonic Black Holes," we will sit down with Moor Mother at Kapitaal to listen to the album in full, hearing the stories that made these tracks come to be. The session will be followed by an improv performance by Moor Mother featuring acclaimed composer Jaimie Branch and Lightning Bolt's Brian Chippendale on drums. Attendees will be able to buy the first batch of vinyl - plus, there might be an exclusive print or two as well.
